Krista Holt is a Managing Director at Econ One Research, Inc. (“Econ One”). Econ One is a national research and consulting firm with experience in a wide variety of practice areas, including antitrust, damages, employment, energy, health care, intellectual property, international arbitration, statistical analysis, and valuation.

Ms. Holt testifies as an economic damages expert, marketing expert, survey expert, and licensing expert. She provides consulting and expert witness testimony for issues related to patent, trademark, trade secret, antitrust, copyright, class action, breach of contract, and false advertising, including strategic consulting, valuation, marketing, licensing, surveys, liability, class certification, and analysis of damages claimed in litigation and other issues, including lost profits, reasonable royalties, price erosion, accounting of defendant’s profits, restitution, domestic industry, injury, bonding, corrective advertising, discounting, and diminution in asset and enterprise value. Ms. Holt provides testimony on economic damages, valuation, marketing, survey, and licensing matters in intellectual property disputes before federal and state courts, the Court of Federal Claims, and the International Trade Commission. She also offers expert testimony in arbitration matters and works as a mediator in intellectual property disputes across legal jurisdictions.

In addition to her damages testimony, Ms. Holt has been providing survey services for patent and Lanham Act surveys for over fifteen years. She has a professional background in market research and was one of the first professionals to introduce the use of surveys for damages in patent cases. Ms. Holt has designed, analyzed and rebutted patent surveys including conjoint, usage and demand, and trademark surveys including confusion, dilution, secondary meaning, fame and false advertising.

Ms. Holt draws on her real-world experience in accounting, finance, and marketing as well as her experience in intellectual property, damages, surveys, valuations, and licensing, which enhance the quality and credibility of her forensic analyses. She has provided services including expert testimony, valuation, and consulting in more than two hundred and fifty cases including breach of contract, intellectual property, and other complex commercial litigation matters.

Prior to becoming a Managing Director at Econ One, Ms. Holt served as the President and CEO of GreatBridge Consulting, Inc. Founded by Ms. Holt in 2012, GreatBridge was a national consulting firm specializing in economic damages, surveys, marketing, valuation, licensing, and litigation support services for intellectual property, antitrust, commercial damages, class action, and business consulting. Prior to founding GreatBridge Consulting, Ms. Holt founded and managed the Intellectual Property practice for The Kenrich Group and was a Vice President for the firm. Prior to becoming a Vice President for The Kenrich Group, Ms. Holt was a Managing Director for Ocean Tomo and founded and led the firm’s Washington DC Expert Testimony Practice and the firm’s national Survey Practice. Prior to its acquisition by Ocean Tomo, Ms. Holt was a Senior Consultant for Tait Advisory Services’ Intellectual Property Practice and founded and led their Survey Practice.

Before becoming an intellectual property consultant in 2001, Ms. Holt worked for eleven years in industry accounting and marketing management for companies including Western Express, Inc., Salvucci Engineers, Inc., and InterMedia Marketing. She served as the most senior financial personnel (Controller) for two companies and as Director of Marketing for a third. Ms. Holt is an active member of the American Bar Association, International Trademark Association, National Association of Certified Valuers and Analysts, and Licensing Executives Society. She was the Chair of the LES Valuation and Taxation Committee. She is the Chair of INTA's Global Transactions and Taxation Committee and a member of the Commercialization of Brands Committee. Ms. Holt is also a Certified Licensing Professional and a Certified Valuation Analyst, and is an instructor for the Certified Licensing Professional program. She has lectured on a variety of intellectual property topics for the American Bar Association, Licensing Executives Society, IPI, DRI, Harvard Law, George Washington Law, and various other organization and universities.

Ms. Holt has provided services including expert testimony, marketing, surveys, valuation, and consulting, as well as other services for a wide range of industries, including biotechnology, medical testing and diagnostic devices, medical laboratory equipment, surgical equipment, stents, blood banks, drug stores, pharmaceuticals, evaporative condensers, refrigeration and HVAC, casinos, online gaming, radio frequency spectrum, RFID, digital radio, automotive manufacturing, food packaging, beverage containers, advertising, social media platforms, toys, athletic equipment, social media, computer software, cloud services, designer goods, computer servers, smart chips, sinkhole equipment, automotive additives, gateways, network switches, office supplies, online advertising, DVD equipment, oil additives, tobacco, construction equipment for excavation, internet technology, voice transcription, clothing, trucking, waste collection, financial services, insurance, farming, telecommunications, semi-conductors, real estate, industrial products, space exploration, chemical coatings, athletic apparel, investment banking, hospitality, navigation systems, medical supplies, sporting equipment, televisions, aircraft parts, quick serve restaurants, engineering, packaged food, renewable biofuels, automotive aftermarket, professional services, bar code technology, cell phone technology, mattresses, fabrics, computer technology, voice recognition, visual arts, banking, produced TV episodes, sporting goods, garden ornaments, plastic packaging materials, retail and wholesale consumer products, distilled spirits, washroom accessories, educational products, agriculture, consumer electronics, religious organizations, broadcasting, terrestrial engineering, enterprise content management, national defense, auction houses, cosmetics, farm equipment, physical therapy equipment, and power tools.
